Felidae Trick was founded by Omer Lichtenstein in 2011 in Tel Aviv. Later he joined Peter Walsh (Simple Minds, Peter Dinklage) to work in Germany on the EP "She Goes Away". Since then, the band has been based in Berlin and worked with producers such as Zare Pak (Siddharta) and Ralf Goldkind (Die Fantastischen Vier). Felidae Trick released their last EP "Working Hard" in October 2015 and went to a successful tour across Germany and Italy. Their musical genre can be described as new-wave, indie rock with a hint of oriental psychedelia, with influences such as The Cure, Arctic Monkeys and the Beatles.
